

Mathematics

Mathematics units are based upon the 'Bright Pi' schemes of work, which we use to ensure full coverage of the national curriculum. There is a yearly overview for each year group from Year 1 to Year 6 which teachers shuffle to ensure it fits their pupils. Each term is split into blocks of work, with time allowed for the introduction of new content and the integration of fluency, reasoning and problem solving in line with the NCETM's recommendations.